

Lyrics for Felt The Same

P. Hopkins Miller

I know a boy, who got in a plane and flew over the Great Lakes.
He went to Milwaukee to study
the history of words and their shapes

He met a girl there and fell in love and she felt the same.
He met a girl there and fell in love and she felt the same way.

And they may not know what the future will bring,
but they know, they're going to bring each other.
And they may not know what the future holds,
but they know, they're going to hold each other.

I know a girl, from the Midwest
she wears the wind in her hair.
She grew up in Milwaukee decided to go to school there.

She met a boy there and fell in love and he felt the same.
She met a boy there and fell in love and he felt the same way.

And they may not know what the future will bring,
but they know, they're going to bring each other.
And they may not know what the future holds,
but they know, they're going to hold each other.

The boy and girl moved to the big city,
decided to get married.
-Had a wedding invited their families and all of their friends came.

We could see that they were in love and we felt the same.
We could feel that they were in love and we felt the same way.

We felt the same way.

We felt the same.