

Lyrics for I (got a crush on Missy Bly).

I, I, I got a crush on Missy Bly. And I, say I, I got a crush on Missy Bly.

I went down to Metronome to see her show. She rocks, don't you know?
When she was done I came along and asked about her song "Tag Along".
I said, "what's the word you say after 'chaperone'"? She thought a moment.
She said, "cuttlebone". I wish she'd said 'Kodachrome',
'cause then I would know why.

I, I, I got a crush on Missy Bly. And I, say I, I got a crush on Missy Bly.

There is a woman that I'm in love with and it's not Melissa.
This is just a crush and I admit it; it's harmless.
It's just so crazy-cute, the way she curtseys after each and every single song.
I bet you Cooley, Lentz and Kochalka, have also got one.

I, I, I got a crush on Missy Bly. And I, say I, I got a crush on Missy Bly.

I've only got one album of hers; I don't she has any more.
And though I don't understand the words, there's one think I know for sure:
The songs she writes come straight from her heart and fall right into ours.
The crush I have is on the songs she writes,
they make me want to sing and so I'm singing.

I, I, I got a crush on Missy Bly. And I, say I, I got a crush on Missy Bly.

I, I, I got a crush on Missy Bly. And I, say I, I got a crush on Missy Bly.

I got a crush on Missy

I got a crush on Missy

I got a crush, a crush on Melissa Bly

I got a crush on Missy

I got a crush on Missy

I got a crush, a crush on Melissa Bly.
