

I'm just a boy in the Subway
playin' guitar for some change Although I don't really need your $ it's my life that I need the change The guitar is my sister's it took a month to learn some chords and any money that you give me I'll give to someone who needs it more

playin' guitar for some change
~~I've got plenty of coin in my pocket~~ ~~it's your life I want bring the change to~~ Keep that money in your pocket you're gonna need it for the train

It'd be awful quiet down here without me y'all would stand in silence; too absurd but now y'all got something in common and I get to feel like I've been heard
